

CHRISTMAS
IN UKRAINE
2011

One of the invalids with her mother

Visiting poor family, giving groceries

Orphan giving Jean a hug as she leaves

Mark with some of the poor children

Natasha, Natasha and Galina who minister to orphans, street children, and the poor

Luda, one of the poor to whom we ministered, pictured with our translator and Virginia

Buying groceries for poor families

Lunch with poor children and street children

Natasha telling the Christmas story

Teenagers in orphanage with their gifts

Galina, Jean and Jana with orphan boy

Our team with orphans and some of their gifts

Virginia and Galina bagging food for the poor

Jana gets a hug from lady at nursing home

Virginia(telling Christmas story) and Jana

Mark with a group of the orphans

Our team with gifts for the nursing home

Pastor Grigory and Dooshie Shvets with Jean

Jean with ladies at the nursing home

Clown with one of the poor children

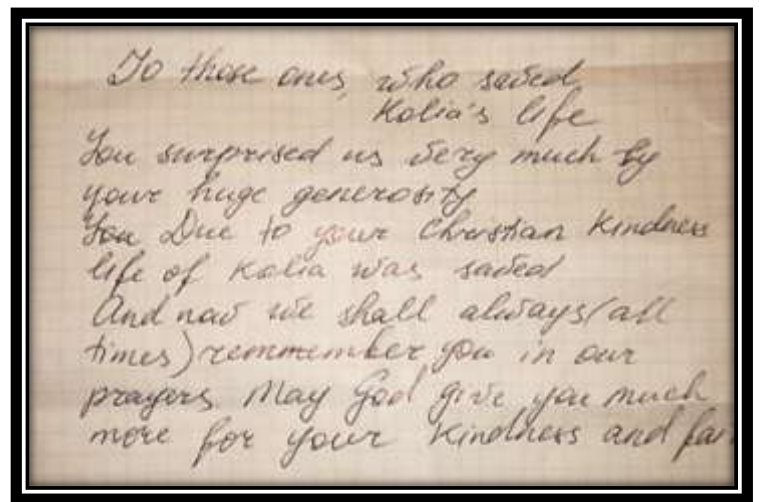

Jana, Virginia and Jean in airport
Mark is still ministering in Ukraine

Mother who wanted Bible for two years but couldn't afford one. We gave her a Bible.

Visiting little Nickoli, badly burned in 2010

Note of thanks from Nickoli's grandmother
(Translated into English)