

Orphans at children's hospital

Orphan receiving his first Bible

Knit hats made by friends in America

Hannah with orphans in Khabarovsk

Debbie with orphan boy

Orphans receive scarves made by friends in Alabama

One of the new churches we recently planted in Vladivostok

Aaron giving tracts to street children in Chita

Distributing Bibles at a drug and alcohol rehab center in Duldurga

Church service in Angarsk

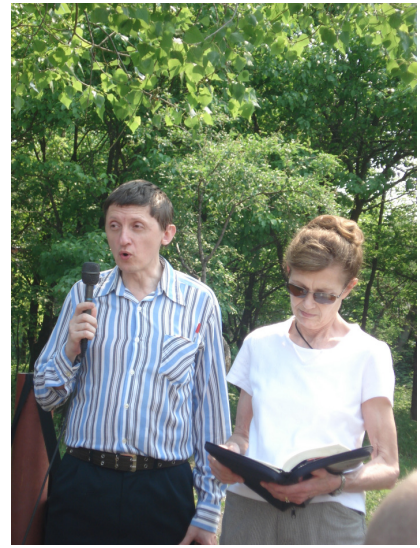

Pray for more men for this church in Chita

Two rehabilitated drug users, now brothers in Christ

Sveta, orphan worker in Khabarovsk, leading children in a song at an evangelistic service

Karen and translator teaching a Bible story to orphans

New brothers receiving their first Bible

Two new converts at one of the 5 new churches we were able to plant

Visiting with a poor family with 11 children but no father

Aaron baptizes a new believer

Picnic Russian style (on the ground) with church friends

Jean and staff of Helping Hands ministry in Chita

Typical village house

Siberian "7-11 Store" at one train stop

Ed and Karen on the train

Team members (L to R): Hannah, Sasha, Karen, Debbie, Ed, Jean and Aaron