

Garry with Nenets boys at boarding school

SOME PRECIOUS
LITTLE FRIENDS

Jean with Nenets girls at boarding school

Children with gifts of fruit, candy and hats made by friends in the United States

Joyce giving gifts at orphanage

Orphan boy Jean ministered to 8 years ago is now a believer

Garry giving gifts at boarding school

Joyce and Jean with Nenets and Komi children at the boarding school

Sweet little Nenets girl

The team with a local pastor and German evangelist

Pastor Fyodor and church service in Vorkuta

Natasha translating for Jean as she speaks at church

Garry preaching with the help of translator Natasha

Lady receives her first Scriptures ever

Pastor Ivan and family of Inta with team

Nata prepares to take the Gospel to her people across Ural Mtns

Nenets receiving Gospel of Mark in their language

Joyce speaking in service with Natasha translating

In Inta we were privileged to minister to the elderly, some of whom are homebound and all but forgotten

Volodia Geraskin, his family and Nenets house guests

Jean fitting Snezhana with mittens

Jean, Natasha and Joyce ready to head far north

It was very close quarters on the train

Enjoying a time of fellowship and a good cup of tea

Joyce, Jean, Natasha and Garry in the snow

American, German and Ukrainian missionaries with Nenets men at breakfast

Jean with Komi Christian lady outside her tent home

Nenets women in reindeer skin teepee

Natasha and new friends

Herd of reindeer coming home for dinner

Not many Americans choose to travel to this desolate, cold part of the world, but there are precious souls there who need to hear the Gospel. So, we go.

