

Some of the $35,000 worth of medicine we took

Elizabeth with one of the orphans

You can't see it but there's a lot of medicine in that luggage. The x-ray machine didn't see it either.

Dr. Ryan Meyer with his medical team from Dallas who ministered to 118 children

Stephen and Bob with some of their new friends waiting to see the doctors

Face paint keeps some kids busy while waiting to see the doctors.

Nurse Tonya registering the House of Hope cook for a physical exam

Dr. Goodman checking one of the orphans

Visiting with Pastor Grigory and his family

The team (without Mark)

Pastor Sergei and family of new church we planted

Bishop Stephan and his wife Raisa

House church members singing to the Lord

Pastor Goldsberry preaching at a church service

Peter and Valentina with van given by a church in Alabama

When completed, it will be the only Christian orphanage in Ukraine

Dan with groceries for poor family

Christians are still helping with clean-up after Vladimir Lenin

Jean and one of the blind girls

Some of the women from the rehab center

Thanksgiving dinner on the grounds

Joyce working with other team members preparing to visit poor Ukrainian families

Jean with some of the ladies at the nursing home

Mark McCroskey with 2 “street boys”

Jean with workers at House of Hope
(l. to r. Natasha, Jean, Galina and Natasha)

Sergei cooking hot dogs at picnic for street children

A few of the street kids at the picnic

They were so pleased with anything we gave them (especially fresh fruit)

Mark and friends, after they presented him with a special going away present

Mark and Jean giving gifts to blind students

Some of the orphans to whom we ministered and gave gifts