

Jean with Marina who started the transition homes.

The first 3 graduates from transition homes in 2001

Ann sharing God's love at an orphanage

Jean and Ann with Irene's girls and the gifts we gave them. Irene has been a friend for 20 years.

Some of the precious orphans we visited. What a blessing to share the gospel with them, give each of them a gift and love them.

Ann and Jean with Igor, one of their interpreters

Armenian family who minister in the transition homes in St. Petersburg

Pastor praying for children in a church we helped start

Church service in a village home

Interpreter speaking at nursing home

Talking to lady at nursing home

Some of the people to whom we ministered at the rehabilitation center for addicts

Ann talking with ladies after church service